

The Hay Writers' Circle 2019 Poetry Competition

The Poetry competition is sponsored by The Hay Writers' Circle with prizes for first, second and third places.

This year our judge is Paul Henry and the theme is open.

The closing date for entries is Tuesday 19th March. Results will be announced in April.

Entry Requirements:

1. Each poem should be a maximum of forty lines.
2. Print your entry in Arial Font 12, double spaced.
3. Put your title at the beginning of the entry.
4. Number your pages and secure them together firmly.
5. Your name must NOT appear on your entry.
6. Each entry requires a booking form.
7. Put your name, title and contact details on the booking form only.
8. Each applicant may submit up to four poems.

Email and paper entries are accepted, email is preferred. Please attach your entry as a word doc to the email, not in the body of the email itself. The results are final, and correspondence will not be entered into over the results. All applicants shall be informed of the results.

The winning pieces shall be published on our website with the author's permission. Publication may prevent eligibility for future competitions. All rights remain with the author.

If paying by BACS payment please make sure your payment is received, with your name on the reference, before the 19th March. Cheques will be accepted on the 19th March, but must clear to validate the entry.
